

'GEIER NIGHT' AT Y. M. C. A. IS WELL ATTENDED

More Than 400 Gather at Reception to Officers and Crew of Interned Vessel

"Geier Night" was a gala night at the Y. M. C. A. last evening and for three solid hours more than 400 members of the German colony of Honolulu with the officers and crew of the Geier enjoyed themselves at every feature on the program. The Geier men entertained in a manner that was much appreciated by all present.

George Isenberg of Hackfeld & Co. presided at the meeting and seated with him on the platform for the guests of honor were George Rodiek, German consul; Capt. Grasshof of the Geier, Emil A. Berndt of W. W. Dimond & Co., J. Brooks Brown, principal of the English school at the Y. M. C. A.; Lieut. Metzner of the Geier, R. K. Thomas and Richard Whitcomb of the Y. M. C. A., and 1st Officer Elsmann, Lieut. Putz and Chief Engineer Hildebrand of the interned ship.

In an opening address Rodiek told of the place that the Y. M. C. A. had made in the lives of the Geier men here, and complimented the association on their many kindnesses to the interned officers and crew. Berndt spoke on what the Y. M. C. A. stood for and Isenberg in his remarks also praised the association work.

Five of the students of the English class, of which J. Brooks Brown is the instructor, gave a talk in the best of English. George Sell, Paul Tietze, Fritz Zimmermann, Karl Ohrtmann and Bruno Fischgorn were the speakers.

One of the pleasing features of the meeting was the concert by the Geier band. As a musical organization the Geier band has won a leading place in the ranks of the bands in the city. The selections from Paumann, Friedmann, Tike and Gilbert were well received, and the rendition of the Star-Spangled Banner was a decided hit. The Geier quartet, Otto Pettin, Otto Bethke, Waldemar Wilbusch and Heinrich Tusche, proved far above the average of quartets, and proved that vocal music is not neglected on the Geier.

Gymnasium work, swimming and diving were among the athletic features, and Karl Krebs, one of the leading divers of the city, entertained with a one and a half, half Gainer and other stunts. Dr. R. D. Williams presented a novel act, giving a 20-minute sleight of hand performance to those present. After the swimming meet refreshments were served to the guests in the cafeteria.

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter today than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes.

DEATH ON MAUI SADDENS FRIENDS OF YOUNG COUPLE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Maui, Aug. 25.—Particularly sad was the death on last Sunday evening of Mrs. William Smith, which occurred in the Lahaina hospital, after an illness of several months. Before her marriage, about a year ago, to Mr. Smith, who is the electrical engineer of the Pioneer Mill Company, she was Miss Louis Pratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pratt of Paia, and one of the most popular girls of Maui. Prior to her marriage she was teacher of the Lahaina kindergarten.

Following the birth of twin daughters a few weeks ago Mrs. Pratt's condition became critical, and though for a while her recovery was hoped for her demise when it did come was not unexpected. One of the baby girls preceded its mother to the grave by but a few days and the other may not survive.

A large number of friends from all over Maui attended the funeral services, which took place on Monday afternoon from the Lahaina home, interment being in the Lahaina cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. W. B. Coale, assisted by Rev. A. Craig Bowdish and Rev. F. N. Cockcroft, and a choir of girls from the Lahaina Episcopal church sang. The pallbearers were W. L. West, John Little, C. W. Lindsay, Charles Fadden, William Smith and Thomas Pratt.

MAYOR IS PLEASED WITH NEW COMMANDANT AFTER FORMAL CALL

Mayor Lane brought his long-tailed coat and high hat to the city hall this morning.

Capt. George R. Clark, the new commandant at Pearl Harbor was to make a formal call and the mayor was to dress for the occasion.

At 11 sharp the commandant, appeared. Eddie Woodward, the mayor's secretary, ushered him and his aide into the inner office. A minute later the buzzer buzzed and Eddie went into the room, came out and got a box of cigars from the safe and took them in to the mayor.

A few minutes later there was a volley of hearty laughter and then another. The mayor and the commandant were getting acquainted. It was half an hour before Mayor Lane appeared in the clerk's office, which opens into his from the rear, and changed back to "John," hanging his formal garment on a nail behind a curtain. Instead of, "Well, that's over," he exclaimed, "That new captain's a nice fellow."

Capt. Clark may be judged by that.

TO REPAIR QUEEN STREET WHEN MORE WORK IS STARTED

Bitulithic pavement on Queen street, laid on a five year guarantee, will be repaired as soon as the bitulithic company has occasion to operate its plant, J. A. Gilman, manager of the concern, said this morning. "That is what I have told the supervisors right along," he declared. "Contract for bitulithic pavement on King street extension has been let and as soon as the other steps in the improvement are taken and work started, the company will repair Queen street."

It will probably take several months for the succeeding steps of the frontage tax law to be carried out. The assessment ordinance will have to be passed by the supervisors, published, a public hearing held, the assessments collected, a bond issue authorized and a call for bids advertised. All of this, with minor steps too numerous to mention, will take many weeks.

MARKET STILL LAGS AND SALES ARE ONLY 1025

Little more activity in the stock market was to be noted today than Thursday. One block of 500 Oiaa accounted for such increase in transactions as appeared. Hawaiian Pineapple was again the strong feature of the market and three blocks, in all 100 shares, sold for $50.

In today's market Oiaa is $17.75, Pioneer $41.50, Hawaiian Commercial $52.50, Hawaiian Sugar $44.50, Wailua $36.25, McBryde sold for $11.75 between boards and $11.87½ at the session.

Honolulu Oil continues weak, though coast quotations are higher than Thursday, today being $2.90 and $3.10. Here 1750 shares sold at $3. It is surmised here that the weakness follows some news or report on the mainland that the patent, long expected, is to be further held up, the Democratic administration desiring 40 dodge action on oil lands until after election.

Mineral Products held at 95 cents, and 2980 shares sold. Engels Copper was $2.40 for 50 shares.

Quotation for Mountain King was 75 and 90 cents and Tipperary 7 and 8 cents.

COMPANY A'S SOCIAL CLUB TO GIVE BALL

The Social and Athletic Club organized this week by members of Company A, 1st Infantry, N. G. H., will give the mask ball Saturday night, September 9. The affair will be the initial social event held by the organization and officers and enlisted men of the company say it will be one of the best ever held in the armory. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes.

Tomorrow night the regular Saturday evening National Guard dance will be held in the armory, Hotel street, beginning at 8 o'clock, and continuing until midnight. There will be the regular popular Hawaiian music.

TWO MORE PETITIONS ARRIVE FROM HAWAII

Two nominating petitions were filed this morning in the office of the secretary of Hawaii. One was from David K. Kaupiko, candidate for the house on the Republican ticket from the second district. He lives at Hoopuloa, South Kona, Hawaii.

Henry L. Kawewehi, who filed his petition several days ago minus his signature, returned it by mail this morning in correct form. He is running for the house from the same district, and lives at Keauhou, North Kona, Hawaii.

WATER MELON IS NOT ALLOWED TO LOSE SWEETNESS

The territorial marketing division's offer of a watermelon to the lady who won the prize at the armory with her "vegetable" costume did not go long unaccepted.

Last night it was published in the Star-Bulletin and hardly had the market opened this morning when a telephone message asked that the award be delivered to 1237 Fifteenth avenue, Kaimuki.

The melon will be on its way to Kaimuki Saturday. It will be one of the largest obtainable in the local market.

Division officials are particularly glad to give the melon since they learned that the agricultural display which bedecked the winning woman was selected from the retail department of the division.

It had been surmised that the garden truck came from the division counters, but there was no confirmation until the woman said so this morning.

Another act of the unnamed woman who paraded in the products of the soil which has endeared her to the hearts of the division clerks is the report that she not only wore market offerings but distributed price tags among her acquaintances at the ball.
